

The Indian Tricolour

Lt Cdr. KV Singh (Retd.)

Foreword by Naveen Jindal

The one national-mascot that stands for and represents a country in the world arena is its National-flag. The Indian Tricolour pays homage to our National-flag, the symbol that gives India its unique identity.

This book offers the readers a brief history of flags, their evolution and significance. It traces how our National-flag, Tiranga, came into being, took its present form, and how a young man fought for the right to fly his National-flag every day of the year. Comprehensive and interesting, this extensively researched book also comprises numerous illustrations, rare photographs and fascinating trivia on flags.

It is, undoubtedly, the ultimate reference book on flags in general, and an authority and guide on the Tiranga in particular.

Lt Cdr. KV Singh (Retd) was a commissioned officer, and was in the West Bengal Civil Service (Executive) as a Deputy Collector and Magistrate before joining the services. He is widely travelled within the country and abroad.

He has authored four books (Quiz India, Our National Flag, Colourful World of Flags and Our Coins) and compiled two (An Insight into World Religions and Rites and Rituals of Hindus and Muslims of Undivided India) besides contributing articles, stories and poems to national dailies and other periodicals. He has also been an anchor and participant in numerous television programmes.
